IN MEMORY OF

MARSHALL DELANCEY HAYWOOD III

We watched with pride as Marshall grew and developed from a boy into a young man. He was not only one of our students, he was one of our friends. He will always be remembered.

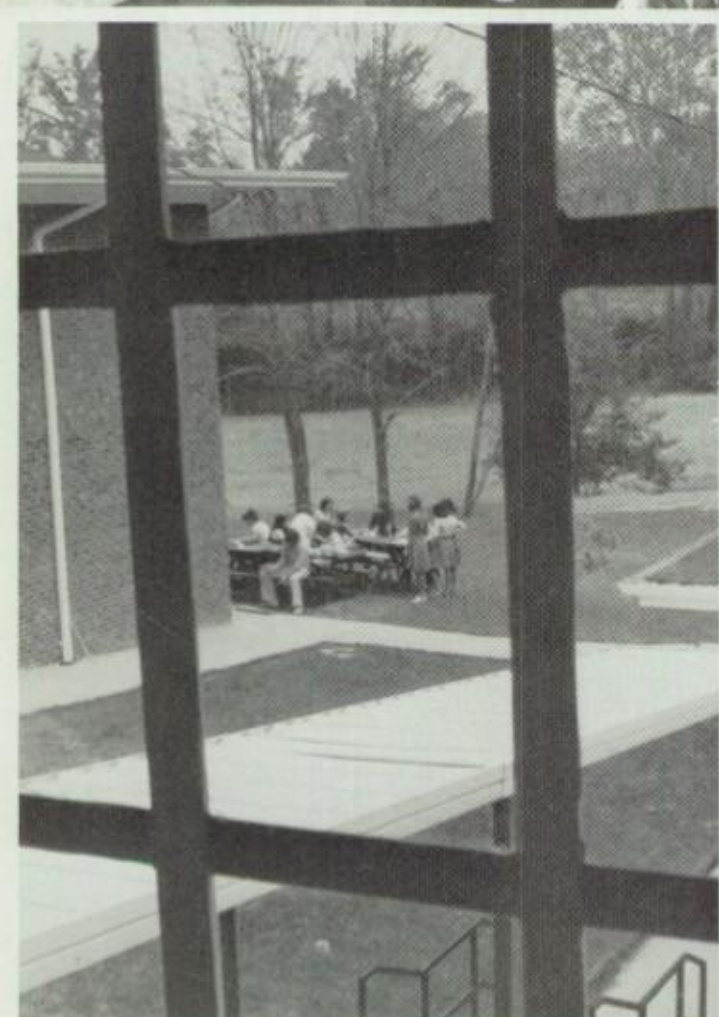

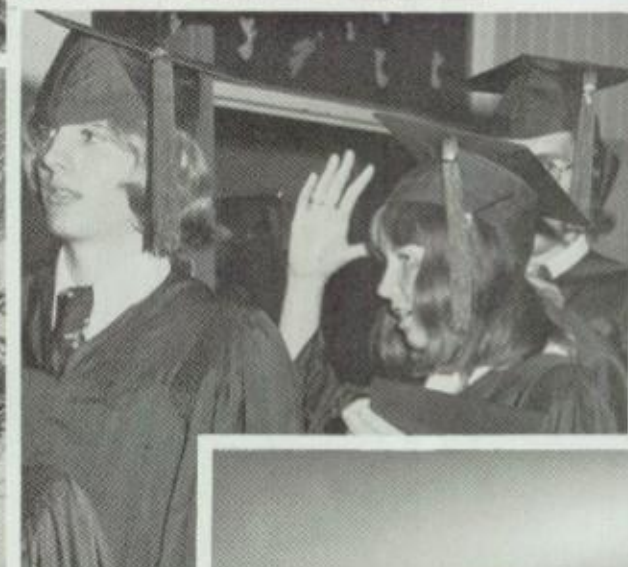

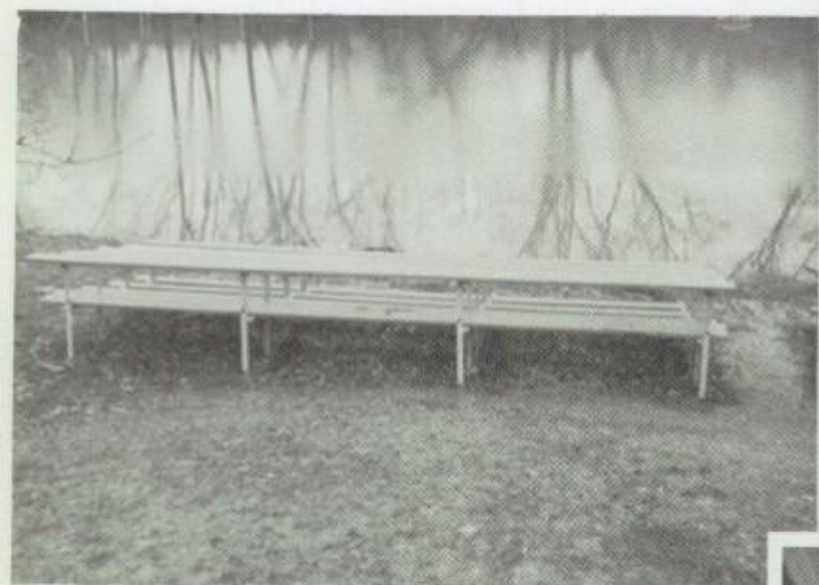

The Marshall Haywood Memorial Garden is being constructed overlooking the playing field on the north side of our campus. The garden will serve for years to come as a reminder to us of the zest for life that Marshall possessed. It's beauty will serve as a constant reminder of the joy it was to know Marshall and to share with him his love for God and all the creation of the Living Lord.

We dedicate this annual to all those who have helped make the memories we have shared at Hale.

"RECOLLECTION IS THE ONLY PARADISE FROM WHICH WE CANNOT BE TURNED OUT."

R.I.P.

- I, M'Lou Bunn, leave RAGTIME to anyone who wants it.
- I, Kennetha Collins, leave my great ability in French to John B. Robertson and my art notes to Scott Smith.
- I, Rita Calhoun, leave my love for Mr. Andrews to Amy Barnes, but most of all I LEAVE.
- I, Craig Chapman, leave my superb skills in Algebra II to any deserving underclassman.
- I, Lynda Edwards, leave my poetry to Mrs. Mann, Denise Perry, and Sheri Asher.
- I, David Goldston, leave my ability to bother teachers to Mike Askew.
- I, Allison Gower, leave my clutziness in sports to Beth Tyner.
- I, Spicer Ingram, leave my fishing skills and sports skills to Jon Reibel.
- I, Marla Keith, leave my lack of words to Debbie Denning and my love to a big Button!
- I, Doug Lawson, leave the Auto Club to Ken Nixon, my driving ability to Jeff Perryman, and my love to Susan.
- I, Lloyd Massengill, leave my attitude toward school to any underclassman who is lazy enough to utilize it.
- I, Margaret Memory, leave UNCLE REMUS and POOR RICHARD'S ALMANAC to Mrs. Lassiter for her edification and amusement.
- I, Marion "Fern" Mitchell, leave my love for The Beach Boys to Sara and J. "S.T." H. to Beth.
- I, Keith Neunzig, leave my own personal copy of GRENDAL to Mrs. Mann who doesn't understand.
- I, Edward Parker, leave my abilities in depth, width, penetration, control, and soccer skills to Tad Renner.
- I, Ivan Gattis, leave my powerful head to Tad Renner, if he ever gets the chance to show his "skills."
- I, Karen Quinn, leave my ability to drive from the "country" to the city to Linda Tippet.
- I, Robert Reynolds, leave all my classes to anyone who is willing to accept them.
- I, Linda Williams, leave my ability to laugh at THE CANTERBURY TALES to Dina Gnagey.
- I, Beth Wilkerson, leave my sports ability to up-coming athletes.
- I, Alonzo Thompson, leave my body to the girls of Hale High.
- I, Randy Williams, leave all my knowledge on how to avoid becoming a schitzoid maniac-depressive student (obtained through 13 years at St. Timothy's - Hale High School) to Billy Brantley.
- I, Paul Smetana, leave nothing but small memories in the minds of a few people.
- I, Delisa Smith, leave my #18 soccer jersey to Sheri, and my big toe to Clem.
- I, Mrs. Mann, for the Srs. to take with them: my "Have a Happy Day" glass.

REMEMBER?

ST. TIMOTHYS by Paul Smetana

OH! St. Timothys is the place to be,
Under a Weeping Willow tree.
When children are playing under the trees,
Their voices sound like busy bees.
We go to chapel most everyday,
To learn about God and to Pray.
After chapel, in class or learn,
An education we'll surely earn.

KILLER AND THE ROBBERY By Randy Williams

Killer was a pirate. He had a ring through his ear. He had a patch over his left eye. He had a scar across his face.

He was called Killer because he killed anyone he didn't like.

One day he and his wild crew heard that an English ship was to take a load of gold to the king of England. Killer and his crew wanted to steal the gold, so they made a plan to steal it.

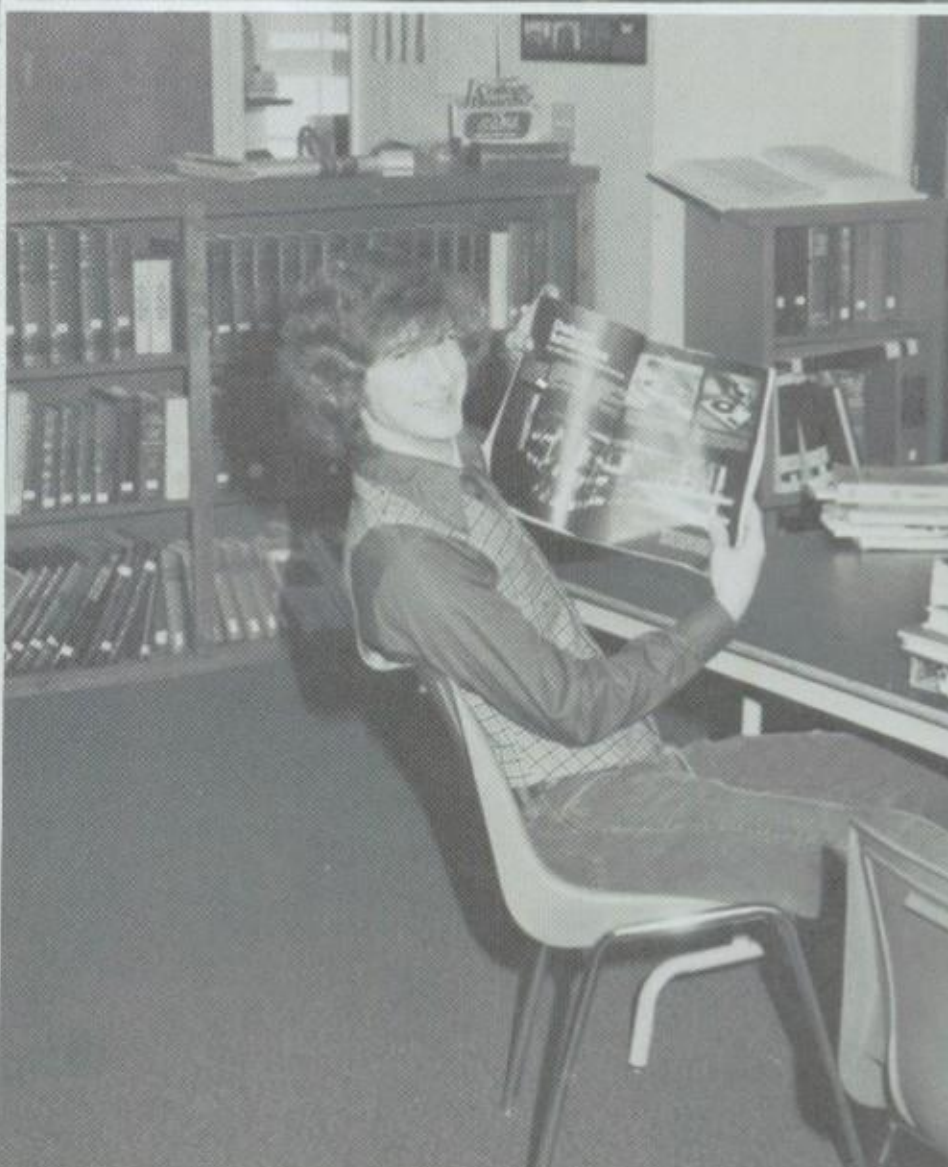

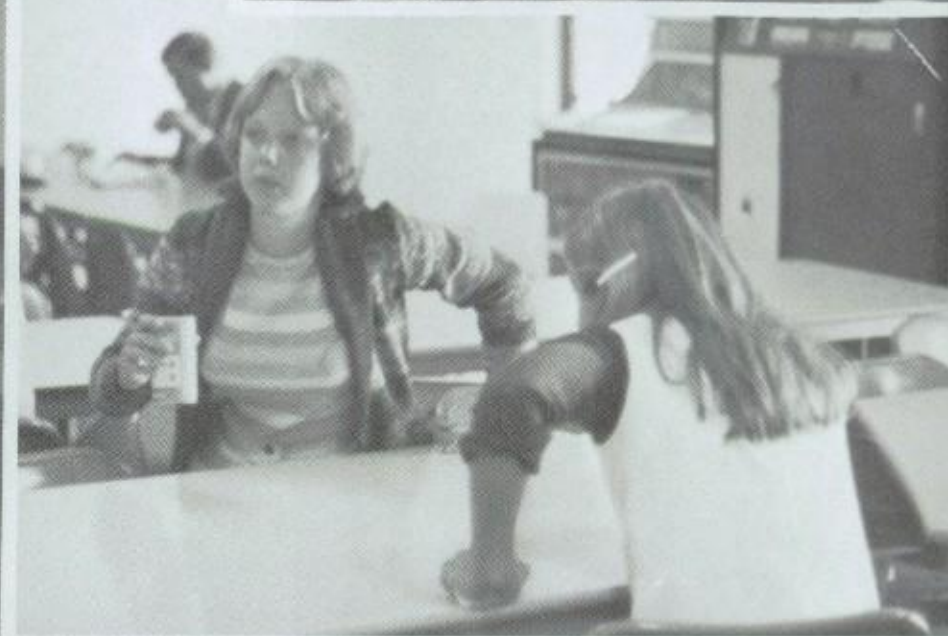

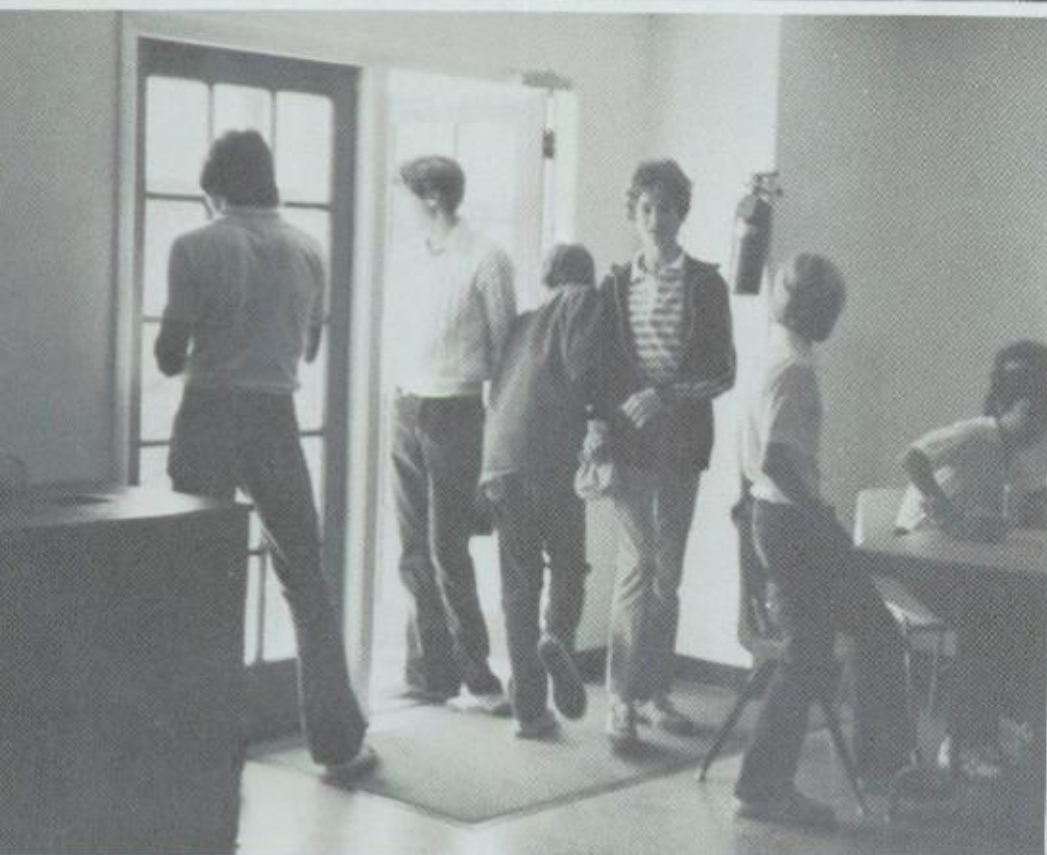

After the English ship was two miles out at sea, the pirates attacked it, but on the ship there were people to catch the pirates. They were caught and they never bothered anyone anymore.

We live a time
secure;
beloved and loving,
sure
it cannot last for long then —
the goodbyes come again — again —
like a small death,
the closing of a door.
One learns to live
with pain.
One looks ahead
not back —
never back,
only before.
And joy will come again —
warm and secure,
if only for the now,
laughing,
we endure.

Ruth Bell Graham
